

Fourth Annual

at the Warrensburgh Riverfront Farmers' Market

The Fourth Annual Strawberry Festival at the Warrensburgh Riverfront Farmers' Market is scheduled for Friday, June 12th from 3-6 p.m.

The event will be held at the Recreation Field Pavilion on Library Avenue with plenty of parking and bathrooms.

Stop by for locally grown and freshly picked berries, strawberry recipes, sampler plates and much more! Donations are welcomed and appreciated.

Horticultural information and seasonal vegetable recipes will be provided by the Warren County CCE Master Gardeners.

Children's activities including hands on crafts and take and make kits its, in addition to library event information will be offered by Shelby Burkhardt, Director of Richards Library.

Local farms, bakers, craft beverage producers and artisans will be offering produce and value added products with a strawberry theme.

Juniper Hill Farm will provide an abundance of locally grown produce including ripe, freshly picked strawberries!

Dawn's Delights, Halo's Sweets and Treats, J. Gallup Farm and Love Bakes the World Go Round will feature strawberry infused pies, cakes, cookies and more.

Beverage tastings with a strawberry twist by Springbrook Hollow Farm Distillery.

Don Whitefield will have local chicken, turkey, herb and spice enhanced sausages and veggies from Whitefield's Farm, as well as cheeses from Nettle Meadow Farm and local honey.

Delbert Chambers with offer multi-color chicken and duck eggs, maple syrup and preserves from Trillium Farm.

Connie Smith will have her healthy, homemade dog and cat treats from The Pooch Pantry.

Linda O'Neil will create an amazing display of her own handcrafted silver and gemstone jewelry from For the Love of Rocks.

Elizabeth Marshall will showcase her own themed fabric crafts from Calico Corner.

Brooke Hample has strawberry themed earrings and more by Aunt B's Baubles.

Tina Combs will have fresh herbs (oregano & chives in bundles), packaged dried herb & spice mixes, candy, jam, decorative signs, cabin/farmhouse decor and more from Chipmunk Acres Farm.

Deborah Bennett will be selling hand made soap, rope baskets and woven products by Loon Song Soaps & Sundries.

Melissa Cole will have a selection of seasonal, holiday and event themed polymer clay gifts and jewelry from Three Daughters Clay.

Patty Lafountain will be returning with her personalized bookmarks, drawings and magnets, handmade ornaments and small wooden boxes.

Ed Frulla, owner of Teohoken Turning, will be sharing the secret of stabilized highly figured spalted maple used to make his hand crafted jewelry.

Program Information & Giveaways by NY State of Health, NYS Department of Public Service and BHSN Therapeutic Foster Care.

Free Blood Pressure Checks, Stroke & Heart Attack Information by Glens Falls Hospital Emergency Department.

Live Music by Two Fold, free freshly brewed coffee, and a free chance to win $20 in Farmers' Market Bucks to spend with our vendors.

For further information call or text: 518-466-5497 or email: taawhalen@yahoo.com.

Sponsored by Warrensburgh Beautification Inc. and supported by the Town of Warrensburgh Occupancy Tax Funding.

If you have strawberries, strawberry value added food products or other strawberry themed items you would like to sell, or strawberry plants you would like to sell or donate, please contact our Market Manager, Teresa Whalen, at 518-466-5497 or taawhalen@yahoo.com.